Barre People Attended.

The Brighton, Mass., item of January 6 has the following of interest to Barre people:

"A very pretty New Year's party was given by Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Mosher on Monday evening, in honor of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Batchelder and the Misses Ethel Wishart and Pinkie Lewis of Barre, Vt., whom they have been entertaining over the holidays.

"The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion in a color scheme of green and yellow.

"One novel feature of the evening's entertainment, which created a good deal of merriment was the New Year resolutions which each guest was obliged to write, using but ten specified letters of the alphabet.

"After they had been read aloud by the hostess, a prize was awarded for the best written resolution. This was won by Mrs. Wm. Small of Brookline.

"The hostess then announced that a love story would be related in musical numbers, and to the one who should best interpret it, a prize would be awarded. All were provided with cards and pencils. Mrs. Batchelder presided at the piano and, as the questions were asked, the popular airs were given with much spirit by the pianist, thus furnishing the answers to the questions propounded. Mr. Small succeeded in winning this prize.

"A short program was given consisting of vocal solos by Miss Lewis, Mr. Small and Mr. Vorbrink. Instrumental music was furnished by Mrs. Batchelder, pianist, and Mr. Batchelder on the violin.

"Refreshments were served in the dining room during the evening."

When A. E. Alford, who is 91 years old, returned to his house in Castleton Sunday, after feeding his cows, he found his wife sitting upright in her wheel chair, dead. They had been married 68 years and were probably the oldest and longest married couple in the state. Mrs. Alford was born in Middletown Springs in 1825. She had lived with Mr. Alford there and in Poulney, but for the most part their residence had been in Castleton. She is survived by one son, besides her husband.

As he thought he had cause to discharge four girls, one of the proprietors of the Wheeler laundry in Bellows Falls had a strike on his hands. At once the greater number of the remainder of the employees, some 55 in number, struck in sympathy.

An epidemic of chickenpox and German measles has been prevalent in Brattleboro since the beginning of December. During that month 85 cases were reported and since January 1 there have been over 14 new cases.
